BYO Materials

Wednesdays

SCOTTISH GAELIC CHOIR

This is a group to join if you enjoy singing with others and especially enjoying singing Celtic airs. Prior knowledge of Gaelic is not a prerequisite, only a love for Celtic music is essential.

You will also need to become a member of SGSV (Scottish Gaelic Society of Victoria)

The group practises on most Wednesdays in term time.

Term 3 begins 17th July at 10:30am – 12:30 pm

Conductor: Rachael Hay

For further details contact:

Maurice: moef53@yahoo.com.au

ANGELA'S NEEDLERS

This is a lovely group to join if you enjoy doing needlework, knitting, crochet, embroidery and other creative crafts in good company.

Where beginners are concerned, members teach each other.

Generally meets on most Wednesdays – 1:30– 3:30 pm

Re-commences: 17th July

Facilitator: Angela O'Brian

Suggested Donation: $5

Thursdays

CONVERSATIONAL ENGLISH

This is a weekly group meeting generally Thursdays in term time,
11:00am – 12 Noon

It offers an opportunity for those who would like to improve their spoken English in various situations, by sharing a hot drink and a chat, whilst meeting new friends in a welcoming environment.

It also offers a wonderful opportunity for volunteer tutors to learn much about their cultures and customs. Some are asylum seekers, others are new and not so new migrants.

Please invite those you know who may benefit from joining this group

RECOMMENCES - THURSDAY JULY 18

Fridays

FRIENDS OF BRIGID

This is a group to join if you would like to be associated with others who are enlivened by the Brigid tradition and who share common interests, based on a view of society that is inclusive and founded on right relationships.

Members are invited to attend bi-monthly gatherings, sharing a meal, with some reflection time together and being updated about the common project which at the present is:

The Brigidine Asylum Seekers Project (BASP)

The next gathering is:

Friday 30 August – a lunch gathering at 12 Noon.

Speaker: Fiona Hill

If you are interested, please contact Kildara Centre (9509 7906) so that you can receive any reflective material that may be sent out prior to the gathering.

Donations of money or goods for BASP are always welcome.
